Syrupy Love
—final chapter
どろどろと恋
最終話

She spoke to me in the street, and then she did this to me, and–

Why is Misaki here...?

What are you doing?

I told her that we do this too, you know.

She looked like she wanted to know more about you, so I told her.

I haven't told her that we run a prosti-tution scam.

It's fine!

Hey, what did you do so arbitrar-ily...

Weird? Isn't it the truth?

The truth...?

Stop it!

Don't do or teach her anything weird!

And that's just the tip of the iceberg, we do many other bad things.

I told you to cut all ties with me!

This is bad, I didn't want you to know. We should break up.

I...

*step

I'll accept you Tsubasa-chan, no matter what you may have done in the past!

After all!

That past is part of the present Tsubasa-chan!

*step forward

thud thud

Nothing is impossible!

Okay listen.

so I didn't know there were things about you that I couldn' t see.

I've been too ignorant until now,

But the truth is, those things were there all along.

I became sad and stopped think-ing, so I started to see only the things I wanted to.

Stop it!

You were there all along too,

so I don't want to act as if you didn't exist.

If you're hurt, I want to be hurt with you too.

Don't expect anything from me.

That shitty girl suits a worthless person like me well!

Oh! She said it!

I'm annoyed that the one making you feel good was a person like her.

Don't deprecate yourself like that.

The fear of losing hope and being despised...

I...I could be with you precisely because you didn't know anything.

That...

Am I not myself anymore because I've changed compared to before?

I'd be sad if you couldn't face me because of that!

is it going to go away?

So am I not okay anymore because I know? I'm telling you that it's fine!

Am I not feeling happy?

With my new self and your new self, we'll make our new world...

with just... us two.

Let's love each other!!

That girl is fantastic, the tone of that statement in this situation is really...

*Hyahaha

Eh? What? Did I say something weird?

Aahahahaha

Yeah!

Lo-Love each other ??

I knew it, you're...

No.

That wasn't weird,

chuckle

not at all.

Oh,

Jun,

is that love?

I won't come here anymore.

Oh don't come, don't come!

Do your mama thing forever.

It's not a "mama" thing. If you do it seriously, it becomes real.

You said you had changed, but I still have the same impression of you as I did the first time.

You know, I think,

Eeh...

A good-hearted dummy.

What does "normal" even mean?

After all, you went through all that trouble to be together with me. That's not normal.

Misaki.

actually it's a mutual proc-ess,

that's what's happen-ing,

it's probably that.

Even my friends who made in-appropriate rumors about you didn't know your situation. You put yourself in a box because of people's opinion and it ends there-

They have no relation to you.

The socie-tal norm, I guess? Rather, what I think the societal norm is.

What's that "normal" you're talking about? What's the norm?

I...

If this is the only issue, you don't have to be so sad or lonely.

I never thought about other people's opinions until now.

Now I have quite a "relationship" with you.

My heart was all syrupy, but

I love you, Tsubasa-chan!

Misaki untangled my heart as if it were a braid.

Thank you!

I love you too.

She untangled it beautifully.

I'm back!

Welcome back!

Hello.

bow

Welcome to our home!

Misaki, I got called for tea at Tanaka-san's house, so I'm going out.

Take good care of your friend.

This turn of events ...

Indeed ...

I thought about it, and I haven't really touched your body a lot... right?

Yeah.

You're the one doing me?

Wait, wait, Misaki.

*squeeze

You don't want that?

Yeah.

It's not that I don't want it, it's just a mood problem...and the mental switch is difficult.

Please let me do it! I'll give my best!

So cute!

I see...

It's awkward.

It's not that...
She's getting more and more tense.

Her body is stiff...
But it feels good.
My mind focuses on where you touch me and I can't control it...

This is hard...

Not at all, it's an angle issue.

And how much strength you put in

It hurts? Could it be that Tsubasa-chan is ...?
